The Accident Compensation Commission Fiji (ACCF) would like to advise the general public that with effect from 1 January 2018, the Accident Compensation Act 2017 and the new 'no fault compensation' scheme will apply to motor vehicle accidents in Fiji. With the coming into effect of the Accident Compensation Act 2017, the Motor Vehicles (Third Party Insurance) Act 1948 and Motor Vehicles (Third Party Insurance) Regulations 1949 have been repealed.

The Land Transport Authority (LTA) will from 2 January 2018 collect the relevant Motor Vehicle Accident (MVA) Levies as gazetted under the Accident Compensation (Levies) Regulations 2017 (refer table below).

In line with the LTA's existing vehicle registration process, all owners of motor vehicles for which the Compulsory Third Party (CTP) insurance cover expires on or after 1 January 2018; will be required to pay the relevant MVA Levy to any LTA Office and in this first instance, also provide a copy of the vehicle's 2017 CTP insurance policy.
